ON MY LIST

Founding my own news outlet: going into the field and telling true stories, unfiltered.

Profile

CAT graduate (Construction, Environment and Land Surveying) and Construction and Land Management student at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, surveyor and self-taught website developer. I combine technical training in design and drafting with a passion for the web, building modern, fast, carefully detailed interfaces. I work with React, Next.js, TypeScript, Tailwind CSS and GSAP animations, with attention to user experience, typography and minimalist design, and I integrate artificial intelligence into my development workflow.
