ON MY WISHLIST

Found my own news outlet: go out into the field and tell true stories, without filters.

PROFILE

CAT graduate (Construction, Environment and Territory) and Construction and Land Management student at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, a self-taught front-end developer & designer. I combine technical training in design and drafting with a passion for the web, building modern, fast and carefully crafted interfaces. I work with React, Next.js, TypeScript, Tailwind CSS and GSAP animation, with a focus on user experience, typography and minimalist design, and I integrate artificial intelligence into my development workflow.
